Print Time：115.11.03 21:05

Content

Title：	Directions Governing Type Approval of Special Commodities or Commodities of Small Quantities Ch
Date：	2012.10.28
Legislative：	1.7 Clauses adopted and promulgated in full by Bureau Order on 21 November 2003, and enforced on 1 January 2004. 2.Clauses 2 and 7 amended and promulgated by Bureau Order on 28 October 2012, and enforced on the same date.

Content：

1. These Directions are established to implement type approval of Special Commodities or Commodities of Small Quantities.

2. The Special Commodities or Commodities of Small Quantities mentioned in these Directions shall mean the commodities that domestically produced or imported are customized and not mass-produced, or are not used in ordinary situations or sites, or the volume of the commodities with the same type does not exceed any of the following quantities every year.
(1) Parts and accessories for liquid petroleum automobile combustion systems: 8
(2) Tires: 5
(3) Light alloy wheels: 5
(4) Fire doors of buildings: 3
(5) Information technology products: 5
(6) Seat belt: 9
(7) Toys: 5
(8) Protective helmets for motorcyclists and passengers of motorcycles; sports helmets used for riding bicycles, skates, skateboards, inline skates, etc.; helmets used for hardball, kitty ball or softball; or protective helmets used by catchers in baseball or softball: 4
(9) Disposable and simple lighters: 20
(10) Stationery commodities: 10
(11) Children's bicycles: 2
(12) Other commodities: 5

3. The application form for Special Commodities or Commodities of Small Quantities, and the relevant documents, as set out in the following items, shall be submitted by the applicant to the Bureau of Standards, Metrology and Inspection (hereinafter referred to as the BSMI).
(1) Commodity catalogs;
(2) User manual;
(3) Application form referred to information of testing laboratory.

4. When the BSMI reviews the applications for Special Commodities or Commodities of Small Quantities, the BSMI may inquire the opinions of the relevant associations or of the relevant associations' fore-reviewing. A commodity can be granted that it can be applicable to the scope of Special Commodities or Commodities of Small Quantities if the above-mentioned documents submitted by the applicant have been reviewed and approved by review team of BSMI.

5. The relevant technical documents, as set out in the following items, must be submitted by the applicant to the BSMI for application for type approval of Special Commodities or Commodities of Small Quantities,
(1) Commodity catalogs;
(2) 4x6 inches color pictures for commodity appearance;
(3) User manual (such as descriptions of safety devices, installations, operations and maintenance.);

6. The term of validity of the type approval certificate of Special Commodities or Commodities of Small Quantities shall be determined by the BSMI in accordance with Directions for type approval of the relevant commodities respectively.

7. Once a commodity has been granted type approval of Special Commodities or Commodities of Small Quantities, the applicant may apply for batch inspection of the commodity according to batch examination.

Data Source：Ministry of Economic Affairs R.O.C.(Taiwan) Laws and Regulations Retrieving System