Article 4

This Medal comes in three orders, First Order, Second Order, and Third Order. All are hung from a ribbon that is attached to the lapel or other clothing over the chest. Except in cases of exceptionally special contributions, first-time recipients shall receive a Third Order medal. Second-time recipients shall be presented with a Second Order medal, and third-time recipients shall receive a First Order medal.

More than one grade of medal shall not be awarded for the same contribution. However, no restrictions pertaining to order of medal awarded shall be applied to persons who are not civil servants of the ROC.

Examples of this

Medal are shown in Attachment 3, along with explanatory remarks.

Article 5

A certificate of authenticity shall be issued along with this Medal, in the form indicated in Attachment 4.

Article 6

This Medal shall only be publicly presented in the Minister’s name after the application is reviewed and approved by this Ministry

Article 7

In cases where the recipient is deceased, the award may be received by his or her surviving spouse, or by a relative --in order of precedence as stipulated in Article 1138 of the Civil Code.

Article 8

These Regulations shall take effect on the day they are published.
